

OFFICE OF THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

RAND-MCNALLY BUILDING,

c Chicago, April 8th, 1893.

O. C. Bosbyshell, Esq.

Sup't of the U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir

I beg to confirm our telegram to you as follows::

"Chicago, April 7th, 1893. Striking Columbian Medals abandoned temporarily.

"Concession granted you sale of books twenty five per cent. Mint Medals
"fifty per cent." Letter today."

The action of the Committee in regard to your communication under date of April 3rd was the adoption of the following resolution.

"RESOLVED: That the Ways and Means Committee does hereby recommend that a concession be awarded O. C. Bosbyshell for permission to sell commemorative medals stamped on machines exhibited in the exhibits of the United States Mint at Philadelphia in the Government Building, also the right to sell books descriptive of coins and the medals used in the manufacture of same, provided the Exposition shall receive 50 per cent of the gross receipts derived from the sale of the commemorative medals and 25 per cent of the gross receipts derived from the sale of books mentioned, and further provided that the grantee shall bear the entire expense incidental to the installation and operation of said concession, and further provided that the grantee shall furnish bond acceptable to the Ways and Means Committee for the sum of $2500.00 and deposit with the Treasurer of the Exposition the sum of $500.00 cash, said amount to apply on final settlement of account, and further provided that this recommendation is subject to the details of a contract to be agreed upon, the execution of which shall nullify this resolution."

4/8/93.

O.C.B....2.

It would be well if you or a representative could proceed to Chicago for the purpose of closing up details of contract. This is offered as a suggestion, but will certainly expedite matters very much.

Very Truly Yours

Sam A. Crawford,
Secretary

Office of the Ways and Means Committee of the World's Columbian Exposition.
Chicago,
April 8, 1893

O.C. Bosbyshell, Esq.
Sup't of the U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir

I beg to confirm our telegram to you as follows:

"Chicago, April 7th, 1893. Striking Columbian Medals abandoned temporarily.
"Concession granted you sale of books twenty five per cent. Mint Medals
"fifty per cent. Letter today."

The action of the Committee in regard to your communication under date of April 3rd was the adoption of the following resolution.

"RESOLVED: That the Ways and Means Committee does hereby recommend that a concession be awarded O.C. Bosbyshell for permission to sell commemorative medals stamped on machines exhibited in the exhibits of the United States Mint at Philadelphia in the Government Building, also the right to sell books descriptive of coins and the medals used in the manufacture of same, provided the Exposition shall receive 50 per cent of the gross receipts derived from the sale of the commemorative medals and 25 per cent of the gross receipts derived from the sale of books mentioned, and further provided that the grantee shall bear the entire expense incidental to the installation and operation of said concession, and further provided that the grantee shall furnish bond acceptable to the Ways and Means Committee for the sum of $2500.00 and deposit with the Treasurer of the Exposition the sum of $500.00 cash, said amount to apply on final settlement of account, and further provided that this recommendation is subject to the details of a contract to be agreed upon, the execution of which shall mollify this resolution."

It would be well if you or a representative could proceed to Chicago for the purpose of closing up details of contract. This is offered as a suggestion, but will certainly expedite matters very much.

Very Truly Yours
Sam A. Crawford
Secretary